Boca Raton, Florida

- Chief Executive Officer of a police department of 197 sworn officers with 110 civilians for a city population of 85,000 citizens, a city of 28 square miles, and a $26 million dollar budget.
- Outlined a new mission, vision, and direction for the department in order to forge the most efficient means to conduct business. Transformed a view of the police department from “status quo” into a nationally renowned law enforcement agency serving an internationally recognized city.
- Applied pragmatic fiscal discipline, maintained at or under budget performance each year through better allocation of personnel and resources, and increased seizure of criminal assets.
- Instituted 12-hour shifts in the Uniform Patrol Division resulting in an additional 10% increase in person hours without any additional cost to the taxpayers.
- Developed and carried out an on-going five-year strategic plan focused on technology, leadership development, and recruitment and training providing agency personnel with the right tools to enhance the department’s performance to our citizens.
- Reduced felony crime by 42% over a seven-year period (1998-2005).
- Received international accreditation by the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, Inc. (CALEA) three times (1999, 2002, and 2005).
- Received state accreditation by the Commission on Florida Law Enforcement Accreditation, Inc. (CFA) three times (1999, 2002, and 2005).

- Envisioned, developed and created the International Center for Leadership and Development (ICLAD) for advanced training for law enforcement, fire fighters, and civilian government workers in the tenets of leadership, management, homeland security, and overall think-tank for relevant issues impacting the noted disciplines.
- Strategically utilized nearly $13 million dollars of seized assets from criminal enterprises to build ICLAD.
- Created a mechanism of accountability for developing crime solving strategies within the city via Strategic Focus Initiative (SFI) monthly meetings modeled from New York City Police Department's COMPSTAT.
- Instituted a citywide leadership program, initially in the police department, and then citywide, utilizing the model and principles proffered by Kouzes and Posner's The Leadership Challenge.
- Instituted geographical districting in order to promote accountability and responsibility to all levels of the organization for combating crime and social issues that cause crime.
- Introduced wireless computer technology inside police cruisers with access to NCIC, FCIC, DHSMV, Internet, and department Intranet.
- Created the Family Services Bureau which allowed the police department to respond to all issues of the family, regardless of age or need, with social services, crime prevention services, family intervention services, and typical law enforcement services for juveniles.
- Created and instituted an Elder Crimes Specialist position specializing in the needs of the elderly and providing the first senior crime prevention program in Palm Beach County.
- Created the first volunteer program in Palm Beach County to check on elderly citizens who were housebound.
- Enhanced the victim/witness advocate program by creating a second advocate specialist position.
- The first police department in Palm Beach County to deploy to all sworn personnel Electro Muscular Disruption Devices (EMDD), commonly known as TASERS.
- Chairperson for the committee on developing a countywide policy for EMDD use for Palm Beach County law enforcement agencies, on behalf of the Palm Beach County Law Enforcement Planning Council. The committee consisted of the Palm Beach County Medical Examiner, the Palm Beach County State Attorney, and several other prominent Police Chiefs.
- Palm Beach County law enforcement received national recognition for the development of a model policy for EMDD use by the International Association of Chiefs of Police (2005).
- The first police department in Palm Beach County to deploy to all sworn personnel carbine assault rifles (.223 cal.) replacing the shotgun.
- Upgraded all issued side arms to semi-automatic, Sig Sauer, 40 cal.
- Experienced the first bio-terrorism attack on American soil in October 2001 when the American Media, Inc. (AMI) building was infected with anthrax resulting in a homicide.
- Strategically partnered with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (F.B.I.), the United States Attorney General's office, and a myriad of other national, state, and local law enforcement and governmental agencies to investigate the anthrax attack.
- Creation and development of the department's Safe Community Initiative program providing instruction to segments of the community susceptible to hate crimes and acts of terrorism.
- One of the first police departments in Palm Beach County to implement the Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) training to patrol officers dealing with mentally and emotionally diminished individuals.
- Formed an alliance with Boca Raton Community Hospital and the Boca Raton chapter of the American Heart Association to equip all patrol cars in the department's fleet with Automatic External Defibrillators (A.E.D.) at no cost to the taxpayers.
- Purchased and coordinated the installation of a state-of-the-art radio dispatch center (1999) equipped state of the art computer aided dispatch system for the city's police and fire department.

- Purchased and coordinated the installation of a state of the art records management system
- Seamlessly relocated the department's communications center from the police department to a new, separate, location.
- Instituted a cell phone program for victims of domestic abuse at no cost to the victim.
- Partnered with local business creating a crime prevention program where cell phones were given to drivers of the participating business so they could immediately contact the police if a crime is observed.
